A COALTRENDS PRESENTATION AMERICA'S COAL REVOLUTION 2025 CONFERENCE & EXHIBIT

Explore new uses, disruptive technologies, and current research in this forward-looking conference.

From the publisher and editorial team behind North American Mining magazine, Coal Trends magazine, and Miners News Global.

Join us October 20-21 at the Hilton Garden Inn-Southpointe in Pittsburgh, Pa., for the America's Coal Revolution Conference, the first forum-based event of its kind in the U.S. focused specifically on the future uses of coal.

You've seen the headlines, or perhaps been involved with projects related to coal and coal byproduct technologies such as batteries, carbon fiber and even applications in aerospace and defense. Rare Earths is another significantly growing area of interest, research and technology.

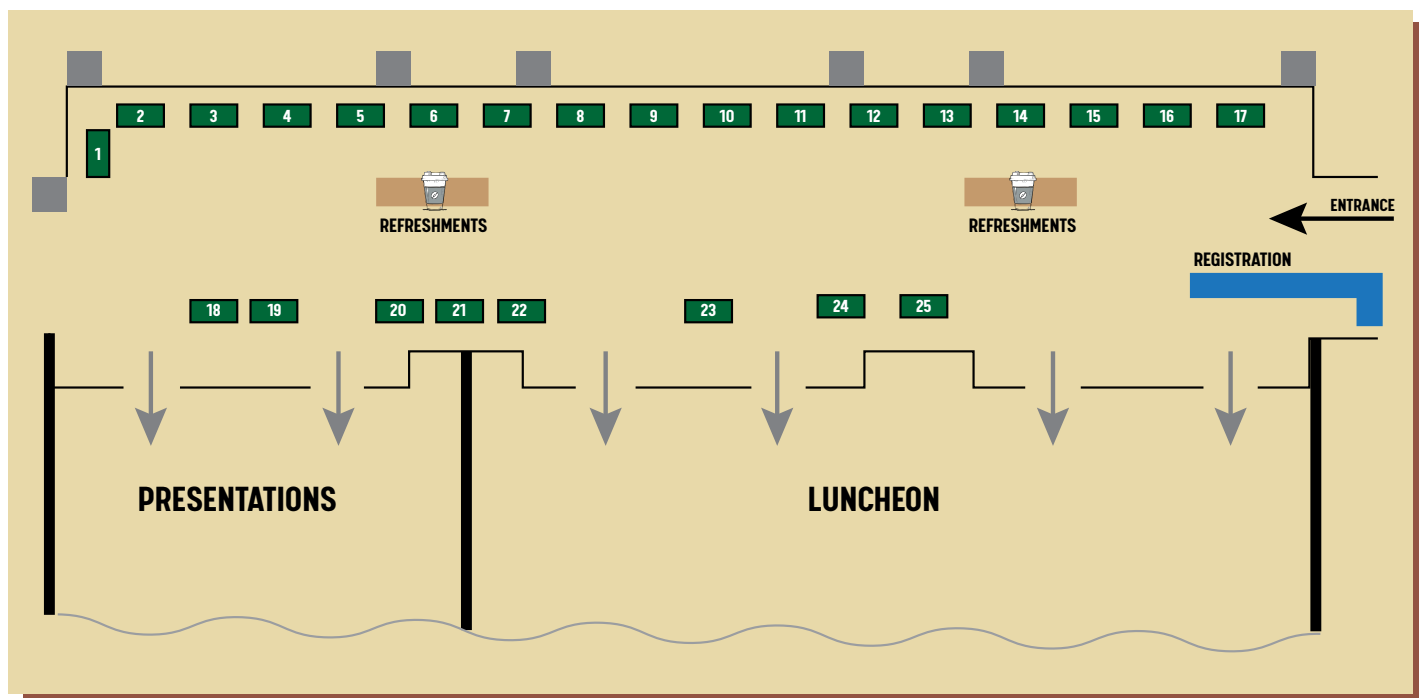

Contact us to hear about all of this and more at the first-ever America's Coal Revolution Conference & Exhibit this fall. Topics will include:

- Keynote: Coal's American Future - A Roadmap to Innovation
- Overview from Key Industry Executives
- New Uses for Coal
- Changing Regulations in an Era of Carbon Reduction
- AI, New Technologies, and Current Research
- The Rise of Rare Earths
- Coal Consultants Conversation

For speaking opportunities and conference information email Peter Johnson, Publisher, at pjohnson@semc-publishing.com.

Explore the innovative future of coal in the United States.

We are convening forward-thinking speakers and panelists from policy, research, and production who are developing groundbreaking applications for coal and its byproducts.

Our focus will be on disruptive technologies and solutions, alongside addressing critical environmental and sustainability concerns.

Help us define the essential role of coal in America's evolving energy future.
